Nature Maker Space

July 8-11, 9-11:30am

Primary-age children, toilet-trained, 3/4/Year to Grow, and rising Kindergarteners

Nature inspires so many of us to dream, run, play and create. Why not use nature as our laboratory to design, create and explore how to bring nature elements to an urban landscape? Garden, mural, journal, and build in an outdoor space with no walls. The sky is the limit when creativity comes to PLAY!

Please note: There is inherent risk for children participating in Nature Play including insect bites and allergies.
